

1998 GMC Sierra Bi-Fuel Pickup

The Sierra Bi-Fuel Pickup is a natural for the demands of your fleet. This innovative Alternative Fuel Vehicle operates on CNG, then switches over to regular gasoline when the CNG is empty. The integrated fuel system is specifically designed by General Motors Corp. and IMPCO Technologies, Inc. to maximize the performance of Sierra's Vortec 5700 V8 engine.

Manufacturer:

General Motors Corporation

Fuel:

Natural Gas/Unleaded Gasoline

Availability:

First Quarter 1998

Orders open 5/6/97

Emission Classification:

To be determined

Fuel Capacity:

CNG-13.2 gasoline gallon equivalent @ 3600 psi

Gasoline-34 U.S. gallons

Fueling Methods for CNG:

Public Station-fast fill (5-6 minutes)

Home-fast fill or time fill (5-6 hours)

Warranty:

3 year/36,000 mile GM standard New Vehicle Limited Warranty

Additional Information:

GVW-8,600 lbs.

GCWR-12,000 lbs.

Max. Payload-3,170 lbs. (include. passengers and cargo)

CNG Type II Tank-Designed specifically for GM and exceeds NGV2 standards.

Please note the CNG Bi-Fuel Pickup is not available in extended cab as shown above.

See GM's web site at www.gm.com for a general overview of the Sierra bi-fuel system, CNG technology information, registration to receive additional information, and locations for viewing the GM Bi-Fuel Pickup.

For more information on GM's available alternative fuel vehicles or a dealer near you, please call 1-888-GM-AFT-4U.